

What is the REED?

The REED is the process of looking at existing data for a student to determine if additional data are needed prior to initial evaluation or re-evaluation.